In a perfect world it would never end like this There'd be something we could do
In a perfect world lovers wake up with a kiss
And their wishes all come true
But here we are i thought you belonged to me
It seemed like the perfect arrangement
Ain't it funny when you find how wrong you can be Oh this ain't no perfect world
I've got my problems
No this ain't no perfect world
You've got your problems too
Now what do we do
In a perfect world i'd have been the boy you need
I'd have been somebody else
In a perfect world you'd have been the girl for me
You could have been yourself
We're dying for love but we're not afraid to drop our guard
We're lost in a world gone crazy
Where the men won't grow up and the women get so hard
I don't know if we'll wind up friends
I don't know if we'll wind up strangers
Cause i've never had to walk away from anybody
I wanted as much as you
