A broken heart is why
I sing this song to you
So you and all the World would know
Why I have let you go

(CHORUS)

They say I'm robbing
The cradle, little darling
Because I've fallen
In love with you
They say I'm robbing
The cradle, little darling
Is it strange for
True love to be so young

Well, everybody says
That you've got blue eyes
But your eyes are Really brown like mine

Well, everybody says
That you're unhappy
But, with me, you
Really look so fine

(CHORUS)

Well, they all say
That I'm outta line
Cause I want to make you mine

But what very few people know
That we planned
Everything just so

(CHORUS)

Is it strange for
True love to be so young
