When my Uncle Sonny blew back into town Said "I'll just go for a ride and have a look around"
And he took off his fedora and stuck his fingers in the crown And he pulled out 20 dollars and he laid that money down

And he called out to a taxi cab
"Take me down to Central Park and keep that meter running to the 20 dollar mark"
And he kept his eyes turned forward and he sat up straight and tall And no one even noticed him no one cared at all

(chorus)
It's a fine fine day
for a reunion
It's a fine fine day
for coming home
You did your sittin' you did hard time But you ain't gonna sit no more they can't keep you there no more
It's a fine fine day
And nothing's gonna take you nothing's gonna take you away
It's a fine fine day, fine day

First time I saw Sonny
I was just about this tall

And he always made my Momma kinda crazy when he'd call Him and my old man would stand and whisper in the hall Then they'd disappear and maybe not come home at all

Then one day Sonny stopped coming around Heard he'd gotten himself into a little trouble in town Sometime after that he finally disappeared for good Then he pulled that old Houdini like we always knew he would

(chorus)

(ooh ooh, a fine fine day, fine day)
(ooh ooh, a fine fine day, fine day)

I see you made it back alright, alright
I see you're none the worse for wear It's been a long time comin' Nothing's gonna drag you away from here

A fine fine day
And nothing's gonna take you
nothing's gonna take you away
Oh yeah, a fine fine day, oh yeah a fine day

(repeat to fade)
