In every little thing you do
In all the words that you don't say
You've shown me how to give my heart away

For wanting nothing in return
You're always there
You make me feel secure
Now I know what love is for

Don't wanna be without you now
I don't wanna waste a single tear
I just wanna give it back
You're the reason why I'm here

You gave me everything I need
You make me want to give a little more
And that's what love is for

When love touches your soul
Makes you feel like you're whole
Makes you feel like there is nothing can go wrong

Don't wanna be without you now
I don't wanna waste a single tear
I just wanna give it back
You're the reason why I am here
You gave me everything I need
You make me want to give a little more
And that's what love is for

And when I'm fallen from grace
Feel I'm lost in this place
I run for home and find it there with you

And with you by my side
I thank god I'm alive
There's nothing left to fear
Just knowing you are near

I don't wanna waste a single tear
I just wanna give it back
You're the reason why I'm here

You give me everything I need
You make me want to give a little more

And that's what love is for
And that's what love is for
Now I know what love is for
