When I told you we had no tomorrow
When I said that were through
Little hope and there was too much sorrow
Nothing left to do

Even now
I still love you really
Though our time has gone
Even now
I still love you dearly
Though our time has gone

My true love
Don't go

When I said that I was tired of waiting
When I told you goodbye
Time did heal but it never kill-ed
The love I had for you

Even now
After all this time
I still think of you
Even now
After all this time
Dreams are full of you

My true love
Be well

All the wisdom says that
True love will find it's way but
I'm not really hoping
I keep
An open mind

Even now
After all this time
I still think of you
Even now
After all this time

Dreams are full of you

My true love

Farewell

My true love don't go...
