You could take my hands, you could take my feet
So that I can't touch you and we can't meet
You could hate my brain, you could blind my eyes
You could leave me out in the sun to fry

You could drain my blood, you could steal my soul
You could tear my heart out before I'm cold
You might think you're big, and it may be true
But when you've done all the things that you can do

I'm gonna live forever, live forever
I'm gonna leave my mark on you
Live forever, live forever
Everything you say, everything you do
Live forever, live forever
You're gonna see my face, you're gonna hear my name
Live forever, live forever
I will return, I will return

Call me weak, I won't retaliate
I can do much better, cause I don't need hate
You could say I'm stupid, you could call me a joke
But when you eat those words I'm gonna watch you choke

You could slander my name, you could call me fool
And those that stand beside you could be just as cruel
But it doesn't matter, you wanna know why
Cause if I'm dead or alive, here's what I'll do to you

I'm gonna live forever, live forever
I'm gonna leave my mark on you
Live forever, live forever
Everything you say, everything you do
Live forever, live forever
You're gonna see my face, you're gonna hear my name
Live forever, live forever
I will return, I will return

You could take my life, you could change my words
You could throw it all away
If love has gone, it's almost done

I'll take one more breath before I die

Live forever, live forever

I'm gonna leave my mark on you

Live forever, live forever

Everything you say, everything you do

Live forever, live forever

You're gonna see my face, you're gonna hear my name

Live forever, live forever

I will return, I will return
