Can you feel my heart beat strong inside my body
baby.
Can you feel my pulse push blood around, Inside you hate me.
Can you feel how hard my body works to keep you happy.
But I'm tired of having all my love taken for granted.

My heart reached overload, I just can't take no more.
My heart reached overload, oh yeah.
My heart reached overload, I can't love you no more.
It's time to let it go, oh baby.

I tried to make you understand the lie I'm living.
You want me to give you more of me,
But there's less of me for giving.
Instead of feelin' closer, I just feel more lonely.
Instead of feelin' like I'm part of you,
It feels like you own me.

My heart reached overload, I just can't take no more.
My heart reached overload, oh yeah.
My heart reached overload, I can't love you no more.
It's time to move it on, oh yeah.

To be with you, I lose my way,
To cry for you, I wash my soul away.
Only I, identify,
It's going wrong, I can't go on no more.
To prey for you I lose my faith,
To dream with you, I fade without a trace.
And I, I don't want it, oh no.

My heart reached overload, I can't love you no more.
My heart reached overload, oh yeah,
My heart reached overload, I can't love you no more.
It's time to move it on, oh yeah, move it on.
My heart reached overload, I can't love you no more.
My heart reached overload, ooh yeah.
You make it hurt, you make it hurt,
I can't take this no more,
It's time to move it on, oh yeah, move it on.
