"Raising Hell"

Back in time there's a place in the future
Close your eyes and you'll see what I mean
Big Brother has turned into Sister
And the Kingdom is run by a Queen

The ground that you stand on is Heaven
And nothing you can do is wrong
There's a bullet out there with your name on
But there's no one out there with a gun

Life goes around in circles
Lucifer wished me well
Just as I got it down
He's raising Hell, raising Hell

There's fire coming out of the forest
Free people are being set free
Deo Volente, we may all survive
To kill everything that we see

Life goes around in circles
Lucifer wished me well
Just as I it got it down
He's raising Hell, raising Hell
He's raising Hell

I'm burning up with fire
Lucifer wished me well
Just as I got it down
He's raising Hell

Hear the voice of your conscience is screaming
Do you listen or do you turn back
There's no gold at the end of the rainbow
All the colours have run into black

Life goes around in circles
Lucifer wished me well
Just when I got it down
He's raising Hell, raising Hell

Raising Hell, oh yeah, here he comes, raising Hell

You better look out, look out, look out
Cos he's raising Hell
He's throwing a party for everyone around
You better look out, cos he's raising hell

And he wished me well
