Take a look at my life, my life is what I live.
This is my world, my world, you can't live here no.
Take a look at this time, this time it's all we have.
I don't wanna lose you, who's who, cause I don't know.

The beast in me is so still, so still I can't move now.
The spark of life is so dead, so dead, it's just as well.
Foolish eyes are roving, roving too far and too far.
Risking destruction, destruction it's all we know

And we're never satisfied, until all the love has died.
No we're never satisfied, until we lose it all.

Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,

Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra.

Ooh we're living on a knife edge, a knife edge, and there's no way back.
You are just a temptress, temptress and that's so so bad.
Something's missing from your eyes, I think it's love.
Oh, It's just a dark place, a dark place that you will go.

Oh you're never satisfied,
Until all the love has died,
No you're never satisfied,
Until we lose it all, yeah.

Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra,
Terra Toria, Terra Toria, Terra.
