You can see it in my eyes, I thought you'd realise,
That I couldn't live without you.
I couldn't tell you lies, I'd never criticise,
You're the best and that's the truth.

I never ever wanna lose you,
You mean so much I gotta tell you.

This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love you don't find ever,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.

I love the things you do, don't matter what you do,
I just can't get enough.
It's driving me insane, got nothing to complain about,
I just can't believe my luck.
Cause when were out walking, and people start a talking,
I know that they wanna touch you, touch you, touch.

I never ever wanna lose you,
You mean so much I gotta tell you.

This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love you don't find ever,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.
This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love you don't find ever,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.

This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love you don't find ever,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.

I might be wrong but it feels so strong,
And I don't wanna look the fool.

And I should know but I'm scared to ask,
If you still, feel, the way I do.

This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love, you don't find ever,

It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.
This kind of love could last forever,
This kind of love you don't find ever,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.
This kind of love, this kind of love,
It's only love but you can make it feel like Heaven.
This kind of love, this kind of love,
This kind of love.
