Hey, girl, let me look at you
All the things you said, are they really true?
Cause I've been tryin' so hard
I wanna be what you ask of me
To make you smile finally
And write my name on your heart

Now I know it's not
Everything that we are
But listen to me

I can be all the things that you need
Give me time
To find out, I'll find out
It's not goodbye
Take a breath, close your eyes
Baby, you'll see everything we can be

I lost time chasing empty dreams
Our memories aren't what they seem
These things hurt from the start
I wanna start, wanna look away
To find the words I can only say
When they come in the dark

Now I know it's not
Everything that we want
So listen to me
(Listen to me, yeah)

I can be all the things that you need
Give me time
To find out, I'll find out
It's not goodbye
Take a breath, close your eyes
Baby, you'll see everything we can be

Is worth all the time
And, in time, you will find

I can be all the things that you need

Give me time
To find out, I'll find out
It's not goodbye
Take a breath, close your eyes
Baby, you'll see everything we can be
Baby, you'll see everything we can be
