The candle is burning out
I'm getting scared to live without
Your shadow by my side
I can't believe the dance is over
Never I regret a single day since we have met
Reality of a dream
A suicidal fairytale comes true

Nerver I believe
But now I do

As long as the stars glow
I am with you
In your eyes I touch the sky
As long these eye close our faith grows
Don't be afraid there is hope

To never be divided
Together we live our lives
In all battles we bled
But glorious memories they wont be dead
Given a chance I'll travel back in time with you
And take those pains away
And let you know that I'm not letting go

Now I feel so strange
Because of you

And when the tears roll
I'm there with you
You are not alone
As long as thy blood flows
I'll be waiting
Don't you forget me... NO!!!

And when the tears roll
I'm there with you
In your eyes I touch the sky
As long as the stars glow
I'll be waiting
Don't you forget me... NO!!!
