Ok now let's all pretend
That we mean something too.
I mean, if she only knew, whoa.
Herself as much as she's convinced that she does,
She'd probably throw herself in front
Of the first bus she finds.
And we can only hope for the best.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget me.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget, forget me.

You know that I'm such a sucker
'Cause I fell for every word you said
Well, that's funny, 'cause so did you.
Like when you said you missed us all so much.
With kisses of convenience you can lock us all away
And save us all for a rainy day.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget me.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget, forget me.

Whoa, whoa, whoa.
Around your little finger
You have us all wrapped tightly.
And all that it would take is just a little phone call
Right by your side we'd be there in a heart beat.
It doesn't really matter how hard we try,
'Cause we still love you.
And all the words you say,
Well they don't mean that much
If you can't put your money where your mouth is.
It would take just one hand

To count your thoughts of me
When I could fill the sea with thoughts of you.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget me.

So if you teach me how
You forget your best friend
I'll teach you how to forget, forget me.
