( Georgesco D'Anjou )
Take my hand, hold it tight
That's what I need tonight
Where, where have you been
Don't ask for more it's too late
No devotions I lost my faith
Where, where have you been
And some will love you all their lives
Some will love you for the night
None of these I'll ever know
I've given up it's just not for me
I was told many times
That no love would be mine
Where, where have you been
I'm exhausted, I am through
Hurts me more and more to need you
Where, where have you been
Some will love you all their lives
Some will love you for the night
None of these I'll ever know
I've given up it's just not for me
