I'll watch you choke on your mistakes
Your regrets follow with every step
I will push and push until you can't take anymore

When you saw death right before your eyes
Think about the 99 ways you could die, could die!

I hope when you close your eyes you see his face [X2]
(looking back)

Thought you were on top of the world
And you had it all
Now you look for excuses
Justify what you did was right
What you did wasn't right

I'll watch you choke on your mistakes
Your regrets follow with every step
I will push and push until you can't take anymore
When you saw death right before your eyes
Think about the 99 ways you could die, could die, could die

Thought you were untouchable and you've done no wrong
The favor will soon return, return!

Did you think about the 99 ways [X3]
That you could die?
