At all the times when I need it most
No one was there and now I'm fine with standing here all alone
All of my cries for a friend went unheard Went so unheard at all the times when I needed it most

I was alone but I turned out just fine
With no one by my side, with no one by my side!

Face down, facedown on the ground in this game of life

Pick me up or leave me [X2]

Just because I turned out fine on my own Doesn't mean that's the way I want things to be forever
And although I'd rather not, it wouldn't hurt me To leave this room alone before getting walked on by a so-called friend
I will end up in the same place
With or without you by my side, with or without you by my side

Facedown, face down on the ground in this game of
Pick me up or leave me

Pick me up or leave me now

Leave me now
