I'm spinning in circles
Pouring my insides out
See what you do to me?
Teach me all about love and lies
And how there's no death
And I will find the way into your heart
No matter what it takes, what it takes
On my part
And I will lose sleep until it's right
Until my legs are shaking
Words are making
Every second of this night last

I'm not quite over
Getting into you
I'm not quite over
Getting into you

I'm spinning in circles
Pouring my insides out
See what you do to me?
Teach me all about love and lies
And how there's no death
And I will find the way into your heart
No matter what it takes, what it takes
On my part
And I will lose sleep until it works
'Cause anyone
Who makes it feel alright to hurt
Deserves

I'm not quite over
Getting into you
I'm not quite over
Getting into you

I'm spinning in circles
Pouring my insides out
See what you do to me?
Teach me all about love and lies
And how there's no death

And I will find
Oh I will find

Pick me up and make it feel like home to be anywhere with you
Repeat

I'm spinning in circles
Pouring my insides out
See what you do to me?
Teach me all about love and lies
And how there's no death
And I will find

And you're spinning in circles
Pouring your insides out
See what I do to you
Teach you all about love and lies
And how there is no death
And you will find
