Verse 1

Can you breathe the air that's telling me that it's winter?
Can you feel the fingertips of sky showing me I can't forget her?
Do you try to get up when I'm gone, do you feel like
everything's wrong
You're empty without me
Do you try to breathe the words you hate, tell yourself it's better off this way
I'm hopeless without you

Chorus

The ashes of what we felt are raining down
Onto our streets
We cry out for something else, but there's no sound
Getting past our teeth

Can you taste the rain that's telling me the sky is crying?
Do you know that inside without you, I'm dying?
Do you try to get up when I'm gone, do you feel like
everything's wrong
You're empty without me
Do you try to breathe the words you hate, tell
yourself it's better off this way
I'm hopeless without you

Chorus

Onto our streets
We cry out for something else, but there's no sound
Getting past our teeth
