If you're wondering, he's out on his front lawn with a knife in his neck

And I'm up on 15 almost at the bridge now can't you see that violence is a bi-product of love?

Is that what friends are for? To take the girl you loved before?

Her lying by your side and maybe clasp hands together
So they can catch you and know all that you've done.
And know all that you've done

Because all I have are these fingerprints and open wounds.

You're all I had. Tonight I'll make the papers.
Boy kills boy and girl; boy drives his car off of a bridge.
I'll drive my heart under the water

So I'll feel nothing when I see your faces on the front lawn in the red snow

Never tell me you're a victim cause I know that you were with him

Keep your shirt on I'm a witness to these things that I'll never forget

Because all I have are these fingerprints and open wounds.

You're all I had. Tonight I'll make the papers.
Boy kills boy and girl; boy drives his car off of a bridge.
I'll drive my heart under the water, and I'll drive my heart under the water

Even after all of this, no one will notice that underneath
the water

Lies a boy who wasn't crazy and who would kill for you and did.
