Winter

She knows how much I miss her
So she lets me kiss her
Before she melts away

Summer

I tell her that I love her
So she lets me touch her
Until she slips away

I don't know why it is
I find love and leave it
Again and again
This is not the way I wanted to live
Another wasted year
Another wasted year

Autumn

Came and I forgot 'em
The way her colors blossom
Leaves me on the ground

Springtime

Everytime her sun shines
Makes me wish she was mine
But she never sticks around

I don't know why it is
I find love and leave it
Again and again
This is not the way I wanted to live
Another wasted year
Another wasted year

Maybe

You may think I'm crazy
The way my heart betrays me, yeah
As the seasons change

As the seasons change
As the seasons change

As the seasons change
But you are just the same
