Following the sun, to find the one Who's given you the wings to fly
Following the sun, the golden one
Losing sense for space and time

I'm following the sun
To find the one who
Can feel the waves of life
Can you hear the sigh of love
Do you believe in it?

Following the sun, just for the one
Till you find the door you thought
Following the sun, like everyone
Just searching for a sign of hope

I'm following the sun
To find the one and look
up in the sky, see the billion stars above.
Cause maybe on one of them you'll spend
your further life.

Cause maybe on one of them you'll spend
your further life.

I'm following the sun
To find the one and look
up in the sky, see the billion stars above.
Cause maybe on one of them you'll spend
your further life.

Following the sun...

Cause maybe on one of them you'll spend
your further life.

Following the sun...

Cause maybe on one of them you'll spend
your further life.

Following the sun.
