I promise you, for all my life I'll be always by your side In the shadow, in the light.

I'll follow you, wherever life goes But I'll always be aside In the shadow, in the light.

If we don't understand hell is happy, heaven is sad and that's the result of our brain, insane.

I promise you, for all my life I'll be always by your side In the shadow, in the light.

I'll be always by your side In the shadow, in the light.

Caravan of life, by day and by night Every tile's a part of life If it's shadow or light.

I promise you, for all my life I'll be always by your side In the shadow, in the light.

But I'll always be aside In the shadow, in the light.
