"Look of Today"

I'll show you inside and you will see
Feel what just money can bring. Can you see?
That's the look,
that's the look,
that's the look of today.

That's the look,
that's the look,
that's the look.

You have a problem I could help
Buy it and be yourself.
Cause you know, that's the look, that's the look, that's the look of today.

That's the look,
that's the look,
that's the look.

So many trends just fade away
Before you can wear it, it's passÃ©. Can you see?
That's the look,
that's the look,
that's the look of today.

That's the look,
that's the look,
that's the look.

You are so stylish, you are so vain
Sometimes I think you have no brain
But you know, that's the look,
that's the look, that's the look of today.
