Don't look back, the time has come.
All the pain turns into love...

We are not submissive, we are not aggressive,
but they think we can't defend.

Stand up! Join us! Modern crusaders alive.
We have the power to face the future.
Cause we are the fighters,
just fighting for our rights.

They're accusing, like always without knowing,
what is just fiction, and what is the truth.
They have no mission, they have no passion,
but they dare to tell us what's bad and what's good.

Stand up! Join us! Modern crusaders alive.
We have the power to face the future.
Cause we are the fighters,
just fighting for our rights.

Stand up! Join us! Modern crusaders alive.
We have the power to face the future.
Cause we are the fighters,
just fighting for our rights.

Stand up! Join us! Modern crusaders alive!
