Near the port of Great Yarmouth
92 feet of steel deep below
A pride for our Kriegsmarine
Here in august 1915

Commanded by Lieutenant Karl Gross
12 men and I set out for the northeast

With our 18-inch torpedoes and our machine guns
We were ready to repeat what had been done to Harpalyce

Two days in wait, then on Sunday eve
We spotted the Inverlyon, we steered to intercept
We were meant to go aboard and set her alight...
