After the Germans retreat
Our luck suddenly turned
And hipper made us turn north
Pursued by their dreadnoughts
Somehow our plan did fail
Two battle cruisers been sunk
But we must prevail
Yes, we must prevail

So thus the tables had turned it seemed
Little did they know what was to come
The dreadnoughts close behind us came
Straight into the blaze of Jellicoe's guns

The swift turns of war
Hear the bombardments roar

The swift turns of war
Hear the bombardments
As they now roar

And so the German fleet
Once again in (temporary) defeat
Fleeing for the Baltic Sea
But we won't let that be

The dreadnoughts close behind us came
Straight into the blaze of Jellicoe's guns
