Bachelorette

You climb on rooftops and you

Bachelorette

You can turn dust into champagne

You even dream about his name

Bachelorette

The graves are painted, painful

Bachelorette

You tried to show him that you can

But you can never rush a man

You must remember

You're a car girl, you're a star girl

You are at the door

The tide will turn

There's a window

There's a window

Yeah, you climb on rooftops and you

You tried to show him that you can

But you can never rush a man

Yeah, no, say, bachelorette

The things you do girls to your bachelorettes

You thought that

You must remember

You're a car girl, you're a star girl

You are at the door

The tide will turn

There's a window

There's a window

Bachelorette

You fly alone and then you cry sometimes

There's nothing like it in the world

You'll go to Paris on your own

Oh, just bachelorette

You climb on rooftops and you

Bachelorette

You can turn dust into champagne

You even
