GUY SPOKEN:

John Lennon was shot here, at the entrance to the Dakota building.

Lennon was shot four times with a 38 caliber gun,
In what seems to be a totally senseless killing.

DR. EDISON AMOS:

The second amendment gives the right of the people to keep and bear arms.

This is a dispute which is going on in America now.

We should work diligently to keep this second amendment in place,

For any individual with responsibility-

Let me repeat again, responsibility and boundaries of those who are priviledged,

To be a part of all of these twenty-seven amendments,
Of the Consitution of the United States of America,
Plus the Declaration of Independance.

GEORGE W. BUSH:

I believe that uh, people who are gonna commit crimes shouldn't have guns.

GEORGE BUSH, SR.:

I guess my reaction is the same as every other father's,
every other grandfather's.

My heart goes out to the people- to the victims.

Because I don't understand how kids can be out there,
they're out making bombs,

And, and uh, and uh, families being totally unaware of it-

With this culture going on. And I'm as troubled by it as anybody else,

And I don't know any answers.

TORI:

Happiness is a warm gun, happiness is a warm gun, Mama.

Happiness is a warm gun, oh, Mama.

Mother Superior jump the gun. Mother Superior jump the a-gun-ahuha...

Mother Superior a-jump the gun. Mother Superior jump the a-gun, the gun, gun a-da-da.

Mother Superior jump the- a-gun.

I said, Mother Superior jump the a-gun, I said, I'm gonna a-da-a.

Mother Superior jump the a-gun. Mother Superior jump
the a-gun, and I said-ad.
Mother Superior jump the a-gun, I said, I'm gonna,
Mother Superior jump the a-gun, a-jump the a-gun.
She's not a girl who misses much.
(DR. EDISON AMOS: In these ten bill of rights,
Each one gives the people a special right.)
She's not a girl who misses much.
(DR. EDISON AMOS: This second one is a right to bear arms.)
Ah. She's well acquainted with the touch,
She's well acquainted with the touch of the velvet hand-
