Met him in a hotel
Met him in a hotel
Beneath ground

Tell me that he's missing
Tell me this is his one for
Lollipop Gestapo

You were wild
Where are you now?
You were wild
Where are you now?

Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me more

I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash down
I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash

Met him in a hotel
Met him in a hotel
You say he's the biggest thing
There'll be this year

I guess that
What I'm seeking
I guess that
What I'm seeking, isn't here

Met him in a hotel
Met him in a guess world
Gessed anyone but you

You were wild
Where are you now?
You were wild
Where are you now?

Give me more, give me more

Give me more, give me more
Give me more, give me
Can't you give?
Give me more, give me more
Give me more

I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash down
I, I, I, I have to learn
To let you crash

Where are the velvets?
Where?
Where are the velvets?
When you're coming, coming down

Where are the velvets?
Where?
Where are the velvets?
When you're coming, coming down

You were wild
Where are you now?
Aah haa you were wild
Where are you now?
You were wild

King Solomon's mines
Exit seventy five
I'm still alive
I'm still alive
I'm still alive
