Can't stop now baby, in you at peace said, go crystal clear.

Can't stop this journey now, so hard to find my heart.

Can't stop this wonderful girl, this woman now, this mother in us.

Can't stop where we come from, and I'll hold you close when you heard me once.

Sing, sing, huh, I hurt myself today, to see if I feel...

I hurt myself, you said, to try and make him feel.

So I'd hurt myself again, to see if he'd see me.

I hurt myself again, and know he'd never could see me.
