to you

when I can't be there
and I can't hear you
you turn and (turning)
through the singing oh
face you
face you

and we ride in circles
ride in circles
you and me
ride in circles
ride in circles
putting on my makeup
hiding my burns
so you won't see

underneath the weight of it
underneath it all
i'm with you here

ride in circles
ride in circles
we do
and I can't even face you (come here and face you) even face you (here and face you)

And you tell me
that it's me
Taking us down
Taking us down
And I tell you
tell you down
taking us down

we ride in circles
ride in circles
we do

we gonna ride in circles
ride in circles
me and you

I'm underneath the weight of your
i don't hear you
finally
finally
i'm here
i'm here for you
in all your glory you
you know you're dirty
you know you dirty yourself

(until you go I'm gonna)

with you
I got my famous raincoat that I borrowed torn with blue
underneath the weight of it all
underneath it all I can hear you ride in circles me
underneath the weight
and underneath the wings

I don't want them for myself they hide too many things
you know bouvier always said those wings can hide too many things hide too many things
it's you
and I'm here yeah
underneath the wings
