Dawn Roses that is what you call
All the girls in the world, even the thorns
You're surrounded by an army of two who adore you

Our joy isn't about a present or a grown up motor toy
Little boys don't get an honorable mention from me
But this year I'm thinking

Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world with pink if you please
Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world

Black satin is what I wore
That and our hearts left on the floor
How was I in that marshmallow snow
To know my life would change that night?

Our joy isn't about a present or a grown up motor toy
Little boys don't get an honorable mention from me
But this year I'm thinking

Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world with pink if you please
Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world in pink

We will paint the town
Champagne never looked so divine
On his lips the sweetest words
Love, you've given me quite a ride

Our joy isn't about a present or a grown up motor toy
Little boys don't get an honorable mention from me
But this year I'm thinking

Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world with pink and glitter
Shower the world, shower the world
Shower the world with pink
