"Do a dance for me."
Baby it is late still you pour me a tall one...
"Go on, let the liquid take off what you're on.
You've been down before..."
Boy, not like this.
I'm in Quicksand I am sinking fast "perfect," he laughed, "cause your other half has got himself a Devil's access-- Welcome to England," he said, "Welcome to my world. You better bring your own sun
sweet girl. You gotta bring your own sun now don't you forget --
you bring your own sun, just enough for everyone."

Heels on. Go on.
Bang a Tango but do not get tangled Who can stay strong? when they only give us lies to lean on

When your heart explodes is it deathly cold?
You must let the colors violate the Blackness
There is a magic world parallel so leave your daily
hell-- "Welcome to England," he said, "Welcome to my world..."
It's not a question if I can Fight by your side and withstand Anything but,
I forgot that you said, "Girl if you come...
you better bring your sun.
Sweet girl, you gotta bring your sun
Now don't you forget you bring your sun-- Just enough for everyone
for everyone
"Welcome to England"
welcome to England
