Negative thoughts open the gates of fear
Walking in the shades of the evil
Strange forces trying to let yourself down
Like an obscure and heinous riddle

Sea of abominations cover the reasons of the life
Sweet agony from the dying souls
Your damnation is my benediction
In your nightmares, I'll be the crow

In your dreams, I'll survive
Find out your mind and destroy it
Watching you in everywhere
Your agony will be my joy
Under a cold night
I see you cry
Tears that burn
I wait you die

Shades of the evil

Reunion of the chaos
Blackened destiny
Your eyes are open
But you can't see

Shades of the evil

Every one of us walk in the shades of evil!
