Religions killing in the name of god
Bloody past impossible to heal
Death dwelling in a confusing world
Feeding with hate a burning will
A vision of chaos ready to unfold
Anguish, suffering, loss
Intolerance rules the human race
The world supports this bloody cross

Searching, seeking, killing
Living for the kill

Real life in the downtown
Another killing bomb explodes
Terrible pain written in the eyes
Bloody stories will be told
Suffering hour in open sky
Terror in disguise
Unincredible genocide I see
Bodies agonizing on the streets

Searching, seeking, killing
We are living for the kill

A vision of chaos ready to unfold
Anguish, suffering, loss
Intolerance rules the human race
The world supports this bloody cross

Living for the kill
