When the time starts to close and the sky
Turns to black like death
Clouds of suffering and screams of pain:
This is the last breath
Battlefield is the only thing to see before
The hell strikes back again
All his life is consumed in an attack
Bloody fight in his brain
Lost and confused a silent cry to the stars
He's agonizing in fear
Staggering walk looking for something to
Sate his burning tears
When his body screams he close his eyes to Support the mortal pain
Countries at war, genocide is here
The reaper is laughing with disdain

Pandemonium [4 times]

*On the TV I see the news about wars
Ignorance is back again
One more time blood! Death! Tragedy!
Peace is a word in vain
I try to understand this kind of situation*

*But it's difficult for me
To live in the world, heaven or hell
Eternal paradox is all that I see
Machine guns, tanks, soldiers
Ready to unleash the war
Throwing lives into the hellish fight
Here comes much gore
Brothers killing brothers in the name of a
Sickening power desire
Revelations from the final battle say:
Set the world on fire!!!*

Pandemonium [4 times]

*Terrorism warning genocide
Fear and pain walking side by side
Dancing on a minefield you are*

*And I see peace: but it's so far!
This genocide
It's by your side
Dancing you are
But peace: is so far!!!*
