Your eyes are closing
For a new beginning
Voices in the night
Torturing your thoughts
Shadows command your steps
For a strange land

Screams of sorrow and agony
Crying for a salvation
Your eyes are opening
You don't get back
Shivering

I am your lord
You are in my domain
Take my hand
And come to my
Eternal reign

Icy hands holding you
Disfigured faces in your eyes
Spirits singing
The song of your suffering

Voices calling for you
One light springing
In a way of the darkness
Your eyes are opening

The nightmare's finish
Cry!
