There's a place where the night is eternal
Spirits imprisoned to that living inferno
Feel the carried air pressing your chest
Listen to the groans of the souls without rest
Nightmares flowing with facility
This is a terrible prison inside of me
House of the evil, violence is the law
Chaotic reality touching on the open raw

Welcome home (The house of eternal night)
Welcome home (You'll never see the light)

Freedom's a forbidden word in this place
Evil lives here, hell face to face
Harmful thoughts and dark emotions
Spirits in black in eternal distortion
Another world dominated by pain and by hate
Abysmal wish to flee, marked by lack of fate
A lost look inside these frozen walls
Your dignity... it will falls

[chorus]

Extreme repugnance rules your sickening souls
Impious minds in disgust like a viper in your hole
Land of depression where the human life isn't
Worth what you eat
Torture through the fear and pain!
Rebellions are so easy to... unleash!!!

Hell on the earth, home of maledictions
A lot of people living in terrifying conditions
Locked inside the walls of the fear and afraid
Bad omens warning about a great disgrace
A perfect example of lack of sense
Bloody stories ready to tell
Faces of death march to the rising hell

[chorus]
