I love you, but I'm consumed by
All the pain inside you.
I want these words to let you know that I...

I break into your eyes and
Tear myself to pieces over things
I never said, and things that never fell between us.
I forget why I still live inside your thoughts,
But right now you're all I need.

Sometimes I just need to run away,
But I can't find the time to.
Or maybe you're still standing there.
You haunt my mind and take my time.
I think it's all this creeping slowly,
Breaking through my thoughts again.
At night I can't sleep.
Oh, my God, I hope you think of me tonight.
