One day an archeologist was digging underground. and he dug through mud and he dug through stone and he dug clear down to the great underground and what do you suppose he found roaming all around the mole people
they live in a hole people deep down in the earth they've dug a busy world of thier own listen you'll her them chomppity they chompity they chompity they chompity they chomp chomp chomp chomp chomp
you might wonder just what do they do under they haven't to drive or movie T.V or tepephone all they can do is chomppity they chompity they chompity they chompity they chomp chomp chomp chomp chomp in the lower earth underneath the earth, you'll see them zag and zig they never fly same as you and I to get somewhere they dig dig dig mole people
they live in a hole people thier under Mount Everest and the Okey Phanokey swamp
they have to dig and hack to china and back so they'll have room to romp.
so they chomppity they chompity they chompity they chompity they chomp chomp chomp chomp chomp [bassoon solo with wierd chompy noises]
they chomp chomp chomp chomp chomp [bassoon solo with wierd chompy noises]
they chomp chomp chomp chomp chomp under Boston mass thier a better class they have that harbor drawl what a mess

at a bronx adress
a subway train came through the wall
mole people
the Okey Phanokey swamp
so they'll have room to romp.
chompity they chomp chomp chomp chomp
