The mist spins a dance in my wake
Through the streets tonight
In my thoughts of you
I am regret, still you are cold moonlight
(then one morning baby)
Without a call you go
(fly away lil farther)
With all the ice and snow
(leave me hangin here)
How could i hope to understand what i can't know

The tides pass the moon
Moonlight cannot be made
It shines down so true
How can it fade away

Now the words i said, the deed is done,
You said i broke your heart (you broke my heart)
Your voice made me cry, the moon is gone
I wish upon the stars
(then one mornin baby)
Without a sound you left
(fly away my love)
Far from the eagle's nest
(left me standin here)
Thinkin about the things i know i'll never get

The tides pass the moon
Moonlight cannot be made
It shines down so true
How can it fade away

(after the morning baby)
How could i let you go
(fly away my love)
We all need our time to grow
(leave me hanging here)
How could i hope to understand what i can't know

As long as you live you will always have winter ice
I shine down on you as you walk in the cold moonlight
I love you too much i fear that i would lose control

You walk all around but who knows what the future holds

The tides pass the moon
Moonlight cannot be made
It shines down so true
How did it fade away
