Verse 1

Can't stop thinking about how we used to be.
Couldn't understand you,
you couldn't understand me there was too much pain and sorrow couldn't wait to see tomorrow and what it would bring ### chorus 1

I've changed, for the better but I've been talking to myself
You want a taste of comfort
You better talk to someone else
If I seem to change a little more It's because of the after of what I was before

Verse 2

I used to walk on the other side of life couldn't find the meaning no matter how hard I tried Celebrated the earth to find joy and laughter
That's when I became a product of before and after.
