I think the world needs,
Peace, love, clarity and serenity,
Sorry my bad i've been listening to Fergie,
Too much time is on our hands,
So lets do what we can,
To make the most of this,
And we can conquer anything,
Don't you worry about it.

Cause during the rough times,
The war and the scandals and the bad rhymes,
We'll make it together with a big smile,
And maybe it'll work out this time around.

Because life happens and it happens fast,
It goes by so quick i dont know how long i'll last
Life happens and it so happens
That life's not fair
And with the delays and the roadways,
We never think that it'll work out,
But i know you and i know me,
We're tough and we know what's up,
Because life just happens.

I think that you need,
Peace, love, clarity, friends and family,
They will help you through,
All the problems that ur having,
I know that you know that you gotta take a chance,
At what you got and don't you,
Stand around just waiting,
Gotta ignore all the hating.

We gotta reflect on,
The future and whats holding us together,
The ties that we make will last forever,
And if we hold on then we can make it strong.

Because life happens and it happens fast,
It goes by so quick i dont know how long i'll last,
Life happens and it so happens,
That life's not fair,

And with the delays and the roadways,
We never think that it'll work out,
But i know you and i know me,
We're tough and we know what's up,
Because life just happens.

Don't be discouraged by the storm,
It hits me sometimes but i got to move on,
I know your worried bout what's wrong,
But it in this lifetime all you need is love.

Because life happens and it happens fast,
It goes by so quick I dont know how long I'll last,
Life happens and it so happens,
That life's not fair,
And with the delays and the roadways,
We never think that it'll work out,
But I know you and I know me,
We're tough and we know what's up,
Because life just happens,
Because life just happens,
Life happens and it happens fast,
It goes by so quick I don't know how long I'll last.
