Don't Be Blue you ain't got far to go.
You see better when you're moving slow.
Don't get locked into your sadness,
Cop a bluff, strut your stuff.

If you stumble just be tongue and cheek.
Love is always just like hide and seek.
Atony and Cleopatra did it too,
So don't be blue, just don't be blue.

If this high speed hassle gets you down,
remember, everyone is lost until they're found.

Don't be blue, the sun is bound to shine.
After winter comes the summer time.
If you're locked into your sadness,
Cop a bluff, strut your stuff.

If you stumble just be tongue and cheek.
Love is always just like hide and seek.
Romero and Julia did it too,
So don't be, don't be blue, just don't be blue.
