Every time you smile at me
More profound than words can say
I would walk a mile to be
Nearer to you night and day

All the signals that you send
Broadcast with your silent eyes
Surely seem to recommend
We should touch not fantasize

Every time I see your face
Lovely Leonardo lines
All my fears just bulk erase
Into funny valentines

And until your lips are kissed
How can I complete my song
I'm afraid I must insist
Love is never wrong

Don't be shy
Come and give your love to me
Don't be shy
You can't hide from destiny
Baby don't be shy
Jump right in and take the chance
To find romance
Just open up your heart and don't be shy

Every time our circuits cross
I can feel the energy
Solo I'm a total loss
Got to have you next to me

All this deprivation hurts
Without you I won't last long
Give me all your mega-hurts
Shock me till I'm strong

Don't be shy
Come and give your love to me

Don't be shy
You can't hide from destiny
Baby don't be shy
Jump right in and take the chance
To find romance
Just open up your heart and don't be shy

Don't be shy
Give your love to me
You can't hide from destiny
Don't be shy
Just take the chance
Find romance
Just open up your heart and don't be shy

Don't be shy
Don't be shy
Baby don't be shy

Don't be shy
Don't be shy
Baby don't be shy

Don't be shy
