Everyone knows that the words of a love song
Are seldom, if ever, true.
Now it's "up periscope"
And I really hope it's you.

It's the Prince of the Cynics they call me
It's three hundred shades of blue.
It' multiple "nope"
But I really hope it's you.

(Chorus)

I hope it's you, I hope it's you
I hope it's you, I hope it's you
I hope it's you, I hope it's you
I hope it's you, I hope it's you

(repeat chorus)

Got no reason to recommend me -
I'm way over twenty-two
Got a strange horoscope
But I really hope it's you.

(Repeat chorus)
