Barack Obama! Yes we can yeah!
Barack Obama! We all come together now!
Barack Obama! Ya ya ya! Barack Obama!

Barack Obama's making history man
He's Coming with a message for the people
Saying "yes we can" yo!
Si se puede today is a new day
So come on and throw your hands up
Every woman every man!

Barack Obama! Yes we can yeah!
Barack Obama! We all come together now!
Barack Obama! Ya ya ya! Barack Obama!

Building blocks of a new vow
A million stops and a new route
The acting out of the possible feels
Better than the few doubts
Political change
Critical claims
All in attempts to embellish the reign
Of power to the people ? so that we may develop
The sequel of living
In love for the peaceful
Pushing the envelope honoring all
Of the work
Paying attention to reason
Dipping our feet in deeper than
Moderate worth
Teaching minds of a new height
Seeking finds of a new light
This is the meaning of outreach
When it's outta reach we still fight

Barack Obama! Yes we can yeah!
Barack Obama! We all come together now!
Barack Obama! Ya ya ya! Barack Obama!

I'd like to pay respect and love to he
Who'll have us know that we can be

Whatever we dream
Take my hand, let's take this stand
If they say, "No you can't"
You tell them, "Yes we can!"
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
It's time for the revolution, every woman man
If they say, "No you can't"
You tell them, "Yes we can!"

Barack Obama! Yes we can yeah!
Barack Obama! We all come together now!
Barack Obama! Ya ya ya! Barack Obama!

It's been so long now
We all come together now
It's been so long now
We all come together now
We all come together now!
We all come together now!

Remember doesn't matter who you are we are all one people
Time fe soar through the sky like an eagle
Get up, stand up! And fight for your rights
Unity strength, now look what it leave!

Barack Obama! Yes we can!
Barack Obama! Making history
Barack Obama! Yes we can yeah
Barack Obama! It takes you and me

Barack Obama! It's been so long now!
Barack Obama! We all come together now!
All come together now! all come together now
