Here's my routine, I have retired from the late scene
When midnight rings I'm in bed listening
I wake up at five; run by the river till the sunrise
as ev'ry body know, I'm disciplined

(chorus)
I just have one bad habit, only one bad habit
Yes I do
Yes indeed I do
I just have one bad habit, only
one bad habit and it's you, mama, it is you

You got some strut
You're like a hit of something
uncut
I'm always bouncin' in the buff
with you
It's funk redefined and even after we have mainlined
I just can't seem to get enough of you
