I give my love to you
and you give your love to me
That endless curve
They use for Infinity
Would best describe
The way this puzzle fits
Darlin' you inspire me
But even I run out of adjectives
I have heard it said "Nothing is perfect"
How untrue! Perfection's me and you

Practice makes perfect sense
When it comes to love
Practice makes perfect
There is no self-defense
When it comes to love
Practice makes perfect

Each time you look that look
It's instantaneous attraction
I guess you wrote the book
On how to drive me to distraction

This is no kiss-and-tell
Attempt to exaggerate
The way we feel
When both of us demonstrate Exactly how this pretty puzzle fits
Darlin' you inspire me
But even I run out of adjectives
I have heard it said "Nothing is perfect"
How untrue! Perfection's me and you

Useless to theorize
On what continues to attract us
The look that's in your eyes
Convinces me it's time to practice
