I've been living through some hard times
I've been seeing through some dark times
Now I know the sun will shine

You don't understand
My point of view
Now I must get away from you
Now I know I must be free

I always knew that it would be this way
Everybody used to say
Everybody seems to know
Don't say I told you so

Told you so
Don't say I told you so
I told you so, told you so, told you so.....

Everywhere I go you follow me
Everything I do you bother me
You follow me everywhere I go

Every day and every night
Every morning we fight
One day it's gonna be alright

I always knew that it would be this way
Everybody used to say
Everybody seems to know
Don't say I told you so

Told you so
Don't say I told you so
I told you so, told you so, told you so.....

I've been living through some hard times
I've been seeing through some dark times
Now I know the sun will shine

I always knew that it would be this way
Everybody used to say

Everybody seems to know
Don't say I told you so

Told you so
Don't say I told you so
I told you so, told you so, told you so....
